Informed Consent Area

1. Email Consent:

The physicians and staff of Fertility Centers of Illinois offer patients the opportunity to communicate by email, for general questions or concerns. Because email has certain risks and your privacy and security are of paramount importance to us, patients should carefully consider before giving email consent. Email risks include, but are not limited to:

1) Circulating, forwarding and storing in numerous paper and electronic files

2) Broadcasting to both intended and unintended recipients

3) Misaddressed email

4) Easier falsification than handwritten or signed documents

5) Backup copies existing even after the sender or the recipient has deleted his or her copy

6) Altering, forwarding or use without authorization or detection

7) Introduction of viruses into computer systems

The physicians and staff of Fertility Centers of Illinois will use reasonable means to protect security and confidentiality of email information sent and received. However, because of the risks outlined above, we cannot guarantee the security and confidentiality of email communication and therefore you should never include your social security number or date of birth in any email communications to us.

In addition, email should never be used to communicate acute and/or urgent clinical problems such as pain or abnormal bleeding. Our physicians and staff always try to respond to emails in a timely manner, however for any clinical problems, follow proper guidelines by calling our office or the answering service after hours. In a medical emergency, call 911.

_______________ I authorize Fertility Centers of Illinois to communicate with me by email in regards to my medical care and associated financial charges (we will use the email address provided on the first page of this form).

3. Patient Financial Responsibility Notice – Payment & Information Release Consent & HIPAA Acknowledgement: U.S. Patients

The goal of Fertility Centers of Illinois is to offer you the most sensitive, comprehensive and technologically-advanced care. If you have insurance coverage, we will make our best efforts to coordinate your care in a cost-effective manner within the limits of your insurance benefit and to minimize the expenses for which you are responsible.

Benefits vary widely by state, insurer and specific plan. You are ultimately financially responsible for all charges incurred. Your policy determines the extent to which you will be responsible for all deductibles, co-payments, co-insurance and non-covered services. Fertility Centers of Illinois is not responsible for incorrect information given by your insurance company or failure of your employer to provide accurate information to your insurer about your employment status. Payments to Fertility Centers of Illinois are subject to audit and may require refunds that make you responsible for the charges.

The coverage available to you depends upon your employment status and the choices you make within the plans that are offered to you by your employer. Fertility Centers of Illinois cannot monitor all the requirements of the hundreds of different plans offered in our area. You are responsible for understanding the details of your insurance plan, and we rely on you to keep Fertility Centers of Illinois up to date with correct information about your coverage. This information includes, but is not limited to change of your employment status or status as a beneficiary under family coverage, change of insurance company or plan offered by your employer, or loss of insurance coverage or bankruptcy of your employer.

Fertility Centers of Illinois may find it necessary to decline to treat any patient if the insurer or patient has not made payment.

Managed care plans may require a written referral prior to your receiving service from Fertility Centers of Illinois. If this is the case, you must have the referral with you at the initial appointment, or the appointment may be rescheduled. If you choose to proceed without a valid referral, you will be responsible for all charges.

______________ Initial here

I have read and understand the policy outlined above and agree to accept full financial responsibility as described. I authorize payment to Fertility Centers of Illinois of insurance benefits for claims submitted on my behalf and I also authorize Fertility Centers of Illinois to release any medical information necessary for claims payments. Patients who are married or in a legal union are jointly responsible for all charges incurred.

______________ Initial here

I acknowledge that I have received a copy of Joint Notice of Privacy Practices.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN ACCESS THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Introduction

This Notice of Privacy Practices is being provided to you on behalf of Fertility Centers of Illinois, with respect to medical services provided at Fertility Centers of Illinois' facilities (collectively referred to herein as "We" or "Our). We understand that your medical information is private and confidential. Further, we are required by law to maintain the privacy of "Protected Health Information (PHI)." Protected health information includes any individually identifiable information that we obtain from you or others that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health, the health care you have received or payment for your health care.

Your Rights

Although your health record is the physical property of Fertility Centers of Illinois, you have the right to:

- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your information as provided by applicable law
- Obtain a paper copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices upon request
- Inspect and copy your health record as provided for by applicable law
- Request an electronic copy of your electronic health record
- Request to amend your health record as provided by applicable law
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as provided by applicable law
- Request communications of your health information by alternative means or at alternative locations
- Revoke your authorization to use or disclose health information except to the extent that action has already been taken
- Request a restriction of disclosure of your health information to your health insurer for services for which you pay "out of pocket" in full
- Transmit copies of your health information to third parties when requested by you, in writing

Our Responsibilities

We are required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information
- Provide you with a notice as to our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to information we collect and maintain about you
- Abide by the terms of this notice
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to a requested restriction
- Accommodate reasonable requests you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations
- Where required by law, notify you in the event that there has been a breach of your unsecured health information

We reserve the right to change our practices and to make the new provisions effective for all Protected Health Information we maintain. Should our information practices change, we will post the revised Notice of Privacy Practices on our website at fcionline.com, as well as at our offices, and provide you with a hard copy upon request.

We will not use or disclose your health information without your authorization, except as described in this notice. We will not sell your health information (unless permitted by law) or use or disclose such information for paid marketing (for which we receive payment from a third party) without your authorization. If we obtain your authorization, you may revoke it at any time, and this revocation will take effect except where we have already relied upon your authorization.

Permitted Uses and Disclosures

We will use and disclose your health information for treatment*. For example:* Information obtained by a nurse, physician or other member of your health care team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you. Your physician will document in your record his/her expectations of the members of your health care team. Members of your health care team will then record the actions they took and their observations. That way the physician will know how you are responding to treatment.

We will also provide your physician or a subsequent health care provider with copies of various reports that should assist him/her in treating you once you're discharged from this practice.

We will use your health information for payment*. For example:* A bill may be sent to you or a third party payer, such as an insurance company or health plan, for the purposes of receiving payment for treatment and services that you receive. The information on the bill may contain information that identifies you, your diagnosis and treatment or supplies used in the course of treatment. If you indicate your interest in participating in the Attain IVF Program, we will provide relevant information concerning your medical condition to IntegraMed America's Attain Fertility Division for determination of your qualifications for this financing program.

We will use and disclose your health information for our health care operations*. For example:* Members of the clinical staff, the risk or quality improvement manager or members of the quality improvement team may use information in your health record to assess the care and outcomes in your case and others like it. This information will then be used in an effort to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the health care and the reproductive medicine service we provide.

Other Uses or Disclosures of Protected Health Information

Business Associates: There are some services provided at Fertility Centers of Illinois through contacts with business associates. For example: The management services of IntegraMed America, Inc. and certain laboratories for testing. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information to our business associate so that they can perform the job we have asked them to do, and bill you or your third party payer for services rendered. So your health information is protected, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information.

Notification: We may use or disclose information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative or another person responsible for your care, your location and general condition.

Communication With Spouse/Family: Health professionals, using their best judgment, may disclose to your spouse, family member or any other person you identify, health information relevant to that person's involvement in your care or payment related to your care. We will give you an opportunity to object to these disclosures and we will not make these disclosures if you object.

Research: We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an Institutional Review Board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your health information.

Marketing: Where permitted by law, we may contact you to tell you about or recommend possible treatment alternatives or other medical technology and services that may be of interest to you. We may also seek your authorization to contact you with other marketing communications.

Food and Drug Administration (FDA): We may disclose to the FDA health information relative to adverse events with respect to food, supplements, product and product defects or post-marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs or replacement.

Public Health: As required by law, your health information may be used or disclosed for public health activities such as assisting public health authorities or other legal authorities to prevent or control disease, injury, disability or for other health oversight activities.

Law Enforcement: We may disclose health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena. Federal law makes provision for your health information to be released to an appropriate health oversight agency, public health authority or attorney, provided that a workforce member or business associate believes in good faith that we have engaged in unlawful conduct or have otherwise violated professional or clinical standards and are potentially endangering one or more patients, workers or the public.

NOTE: HIV-related information, genetic information, mental health records and other specially protected health information may be subject to certain special confidentiality protections under applicable State and Federal law. Any disclosures of these types of records will be subject to these special protections.

For More Information or to Report a Problem/Complaint

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, immediately contact Fertility Centers of Illinois' Privacy Officer at 847.729.2188.

We will not take action against you for filing a complaint. You may also file a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

If you have any questions or would like further information about this notice, contact Fertility Centers of Illinois' Privacy Officer at 847.729.2188 or visit fcionline.com.

This notice is effective as of September 23, 2013.
