3. Patient Financial Responsibility Notice – Payment & Information Release Consent & HIPAA Acknowledgement: U.S. Patients

The goal of Fertility Centers of Illinois is to offer you the most sensitive, comprehensive and technologically-advanced fertility care. If you have insurance coverage, we will make our best efforts to coordinate your care in a cost-effective manner within the limits of your insurance benefit and to minimize the expenses for which you are responsible.

Fertility benefits vary widely by state, insurer and specific plan. You are ultimately financially responsible for all charges incurred. Your policy determines the extent to which you will be responsible for all deductibles, co-payments, co-insurance and non-covered services. Fertility Centers of Illinois is not responsible for incorrect information given by your insurance company or failure of your employer to provide accurate information to your insurer about your employment status. Payments to Fertility Centers of Illinois are subject to audit and may require refunds that make you responsible for the charges.

The coverage available to you depends upon your employment status and the choices you make within the plans that are offered to you by your employer. Fertility Centers of Illinois cannot monitor all the requirements of the hundreds of different plans offered in our area. You are responsible for understanding the details of your insurance plan, and we rely on you to keep Fertility Centers of Illinois up to date with correct information about your coverage. This information includes, but is not limited to change of your employment status or status as a beneficiary under family coverage, change of insurance company or plan offered by your employer, or loss of insurance coverage or bankruptcy of your employer.

Fertility Centers of Illinois may find it necessary to decline to treat any patient if the insurer or patient has not made payment.

Managed care plans may require a written referral prior to your receiving service from Fertility Centers of Illinois. If this is the case, you must have the referral with you at the initial appointment, or the appointment may be rescheduled. If you choose to proceed without a valid referral, you will be responsible for all charges.

Some insurance plans require that patients complete a fertility evaluation or other tests before the insurance plan will determine coverage.

Some insurance plans are “diagnostic only,” meaning that they cover certain tests to determine the cause of infertility, but not treatment; in these cases, the patient is financially responsible for all charges not covered by the insurer.

Some insurance plans place a lifetime maximum on what they will pay toward fertility testing and/or treatments; once this maximum is reached, the patient is responsible for all charges.

In regards to drug coverage, please check with your insurance company about:

- How much of the fertility drug costs will they cover?
- Is there a specific pharmacy which must be used for fertility drugs?
- Is prior-authorization required for fertility drugs?

For Illinois residents: The Family Building Act requires many, but not all, insurers in Illinois to offer coverage to Illinois residents for infertility treatments. Your FCI financial coordinator or office manager can give you a copy of the Act, or you can view it at <http://insurance.illinois.gov/healthinsurance/infertility.asp>. You may also call the Office of Consumer Health Insurance toll free at 877.527.9431. If you have any questions about coverage, you should seek clarification from your employer and insurance plan in writing before you begin treatment.

_____ I have read and understand the policy outlined above and agree to accept full financial responsibility as described. I
Initial here authorize payment to Fertility Centers of Illinois of insurance benefits for claims submitted on my behalf and I also authorize Fertility Centers of Illinois to release any medical information necessary for claims payments. Patients who are married or in a legal union are jointly responsible for all charges incurred.

_____ I acknowledge that I have received a copy of Joint Notice of Privacy Practices.
